

Ontario Blacklegged Tick Established Risk Areas 2024

Despite these established risk areas, it is important to note that blacklegged ticks feed on and are transported by migratory birds, meaning there is a possibility of encountering an infective blacklegged tick almost anywhere in Ontario; provided the habitat is suitable for blacklegged ticks (e.g., wooded or brushy areas).

April 2024

www.publichealthontario.ca/lymedisease